[REDACTED] IR, discussed the functions of that office. He described the organization of the files and the types of materials maintained in them. He stressed that the basic function of IR is one of service which it performs for the entire intelligence community. One of the services 25X1B0c it performs is the processing of the [REDACTED]. Another service, which would be of particular aid to ORR analysts, is the processing of raw intelligence data for specific projects. He emphasized that IR has the time and materials available for this purpose and he felt that perhaps analysts could make better use of this service. It was suggested, also, that before writing up Branch requirements a check with IR might answer questions which would otherwise be included.

Agenda: The next regular meeting will be on Thursday, 4 December, at 1400, Room 1125 M. The subject for discussion will be current items.
